
Evening Worship Sermon Notes
October 11, 2009

THE HEART OF MISSIONS

Isaiah 6:8
[Pew Bible p.518]

The heart of God sent His Son to the world because “He is not willing that any should perish”. Simply put, “God so loved the world that He gave....” Someone has said that if He loved the lost world as He did then we should love it too. In this verse we are challenged by Isaiah’s relationship and response to God. Surely Isaiah caught the heart of God.

I. Isaiah Heard the Voice of God

- A. He was in a relationship with God (v.1-7)
- B. He was ready to hear the voice of God

II. Isaiah Had the Heart of God

- A. He recognized the need
- B. He responded to the need

III. Isaiah Heeded the Call of God

- A. Isaiah offered himself to the Lord (“Here am I”)
- B. Isaiah obeyed the Lord (“Send me”)