

Last week, we studied verses 16 and 17 by themselves. We found that they presented communion which emphasized fellowship with Jesus. Today, we see this idea expanded with an illustration from the Old Testament and the addition of fellowship with the Devil and what our attitude should be.

- I. The Precept vv.16-20
 - A. There is a Godly fellowship (vv.16-18)
 - B. There is an ungodly fellowship (vv.19-20)

- II. The Proclamation – There is a choice that must be made v.21
(Josh. 24:15; Matt. 6:24; Lk. 16:13)
 - A. It must be consistent
 - B. It must be appropriate

- III. The Problem – The wrong choice brings the wrath of God v.22
 - A. It provokes God
 - B. It incurs punishment from God
